ROAD TO CHANGE TOUR
JULY 12TH VISIT TO L.A. COUNTY JUVENILE HALL

VOTER REGISTRATION & EMPOWERMENT CAMPAIGN

ABOUT THE TOUR

This summer, the students of March For Our Lives are making stops across America to get young people educated, registered, and motivated to vote. The youth collective call it March For Our Lives: Road to Change.

Traveling from city to city, with more than 50 planned stops in over 20 states, youth leaders are visiting communities that have been affected by gun violence to meet fellow survivors and amplify a collective voice. It is a tour to catalyze a time to turn energy into action.

THE VISIT

BUILDING BRIDGES AND EMPOWERING VOICES

- WHO VISITED: 8 students from the tour along with tour organizers and Creative Acts founders.
- THE GATHERING: Spending 3 hours with more than 30 girls and their staff.
- Through creative Arts-based methods, sharing experiences and ideas with the intention to deepen cross cultural understanding while strengthening our common goals for safer communities.
