

Using the #PowerOfTheArts to Heal and Transform

ANTI RACISM & DEI TRAINING

With Creative Acts

CREATIVE
ACTS

Creative Acts is a social justice arts organization. With over 15 years of experience teaching in the most racially divided place on Earth, prison, co-founder Sabra Williams and her team are bringing their revolutionary, arts-based approach to diversity, inclusion, and anti-racism- to train corporations and organizations like yours!

Our Work

Our Team

What Sets Us Apart?

- Our training is fun and interactive
- We don't believe that shame or blame are productive, we focus on healing and transformation
- We integrate all the information about diversity, inclusion, and anti-racism into an arts-based curriculum
- As well as engaging in deep discussion, participants will draw, create poetry, work as a team, and play!

Learn more...

Who is this for?

- Each program is tailored to your company, non-profit, or organization
- From small private groups, to large corporations, Creative Acts' program can be customized to suit your needs
- We also offer virtual trainings and workshops

Is this program right for me?

How does a typical class work?

- Agreements: The class sets their own ground rules which are mutually agreed upon, starting off with team building and cooperation.
- Team Building Games: Fun physical exercises that get everyone on their feet and ready to work together
- Collaborative Art: Writing, Theatre Games, Drawn Art, Improv, etc.
- Open Discussion: We encourage honest conversations without judgement

...and more!

What are the outcomes?

- ✓ Increased well being amongst employees, volunteers, and group members
- ✓ Improved confidence in broaching sensitive subjects, and tools to call out practices that perpetuate systemic racism and call in those who may prove to be allies
- ✓ A workbook outlining the class and a list of resources for further study
- ✓ We also offer refresher sessions and check-ins

Our past clients:

THE ANNIE E. CASEY

THE GROUND

Contact Us to set up a consultation appointment:
info@creativeacts.us

LET'S GET STARTED!

Click Here To Get More Info

Learn more about us!

Follow us

